GILSON-BRADFIELD COMPANY OPEN IN SNYDER

The Gilson-Bradfield Stock Company opened their three nights engagement at the Snyder Opera House Thursday night, their initial production being "Laughter and Old Lace" dramatized from Myrtle Reed's famous novel of the same name. The story is one of the sweetest and most interesting stories ever written or staged, and the Gilson-Bradfield Company portray every character in a way that no doubt would be pleasing to the author herself.

Featuring Miss Alice De Lane as Miss Almlee, the character around whom the title is closely woven, the Gilson-Bradfield presented a support unexcelled by any company that it has ever been the pleasure of Snyder theatre goes to see.

Miss Rose Alsworth and Mr. Ernest Winters, produced a romance in the lives of Ruth Thorne and Carl Winfield that was true to life in every detail.

Mr. Cash Randall as Joe Pendleton and Miss Olive Noret as Hoppy were exceptionally good and Mr. Chan Wilkerson as James Ball and Miss Chaffee as Jane Hathaway were great. Mr. Bernard was good as Mr. Wheeler.

In its entirety, no better cast could have been selected for this peculiar play.

A large crowd attended the opening of the engagement and were well pleased with the performance.

Tonight, this company will present "Barriers Burned Away" written by the noted author, E. P. Roe. The book is one of the greatest novels ever written and the Gilson-Bradfield Company are competent to play it.
